ATTORNEY SPOTLIGHT

NICHOLAS RUPWANI

Attorney Spotlight:

Nicholas Rupwani
Senior Workers' Compensation Attorney

This month, we would like to shine the spotlight on Nicholas Rupwani!

Nicholas Rupwani has been practicing workers' compensation law for over a decade. He is an expert in the field and provides unique insight into the cases that he represents before the New York State Workers' Compensation Board. His extensive experience and knowledge has allowed him to help many New York employees receive the workers' compensation that they are entitled to.

Mr. Rupwani earned his law degree from Syracuse University College of Law in 2003, and received his Bachelor's degree from Hartwick College in 2000.

Prior to joining us here at Pyrros & Serres, LLP, Mr. Rupwani was the lead trial attorney for a large employer in Westchester County. This defense experience has provided him with the ability to anticipate and counteract defense strategy. We are lucky to have him on our team!

Outside of his hard work at our practice, Mr. Rupwani enjoys taking the time to travel, as well as enjoying the many great restaurants New York has to offer. He also remains a die-hard fan of the Syracuse Orange football and basketball teams - his Alma Mater.

Are you looking to file a workers' compensation claim?
